Visiting Rotarians

Dick and Rita Matthews from New Bern, NC
Neil Teague

Announcements

- James Williams will be leaving for Slovakia on Saturday and introduced his mother Tasha, who is interested in becoming a member of Rotary!
- Susie Flick introduced Mary Bakogiannis who is the interim director at the Geneva Family YMCA and Sara Allen who is the membership director. Both were given their membership packets today and we hope to see more of them soon!
- Paul Kirsch announced that the directories are ready for those that requested one and can be picked up when you leave today.

50/50

Bruce Tuxill split $36/$37 with Polio Plus, and donated the proceeds back!

Fines/Happy Dollars

- Susie had a happy dollar for leaving for vacation tomorrow.
- John O. had a happy dollar for James, the people from the Y and for James' Mom.
- Elaine had a happy dollar for starting her new job at FLACRA tomorrow, and also for her daughter who moved from DC back to New York City.
- Jim Devaney was happy because he and Dave Cook drove down to New York City for a Yankees game last weekend and the Yankees won!
- Jerry was happy to have been able to spend the eclipse at Jim Dickson's home and had a great time.
- Jim Dickson was happy for the great weather for the eclipse and for attending a Guns 'N Roses concert with his son.
- James Williams was happy for being able to have a year abroad and for rotary sponsoring him so he can go to Slovakia.
- Mike Rusinko had a lot of fun hosting the auction for Ontario ARC.
- Ken Steadman was happy to have spent time with his granddaughter traveling to Venice and the surrounding area. He had some trouble when he got home and got stuck in Newark, NJ. He ended up having to spend the night in New York and taking the train to Rochester!
- Ted Baker was happy to have just finished Vacation with no cell service or internet. The biggest problem he had was overturning the kayak in the pond.
- Chris Lavin had a happy dollar for Jim and Sue Adams that will be honored on October 19 at the Ramada. He also informs us that Mary Luckern is doing well and would love to have visitors.
- Dick Austin took his daughters to see the Little Mermaid in Buffalo on Sunday. During intermission he bought them each a t-shirt, which amounted to $100!!! He's pretty sure those t-shirts were made of some very rare and magical fabric. At the end of the show, when they were getting ready to leave, a woman in the audience commented on how she saw him mouthing the words to every song!

Program

Mary Lawthers introduced Kevin Schoonover, Gena Rangel and Suzanne Murphy from the Geneva Light Opera.

Sadly, I had to leave at this point of our meeting to get back to work by 1:00. You can find out all about the Geneva Light Opera at their website at <http://www.genevalightopera.com/about.html>
