Announcements

- Kelly Bradley announced that she will be leaving Ashley Furniture for a new position at Lyons National Bank in Penn Yan. She is happy for this opportunity, but is sorry to be leaving Geneva Rotary. (We'll miss you Kelly! Best of luck in your new position!)
- Lisa Ventura said that the deadline has been extended to purchase tickets for the SAS dinner.
- Joe Scibona is chairing Our Lady of Peace golf tournament next week. Let him know if you are interested in playing.
- Jim Dickson says the next Adopt-a-Highway clean up is set for May 12th. We will meet at 9am on the corner of Billsboro Road and Rte.14.

- Jim also reminded Paul Harris Fellows to wear their medallions to the SAS dinner.

Fines/Happy Dollars

- Walt Gage is happy to be back from Florida.
- Ken Steadman is happy that his wife, Eva, is home from the hospital.
- Ted Baker spent the week-end in Maryland and in Boston for the Red Sox game.
- Ellen Wayne is back on track for going to Scotland, now that her husband is feeling better.
- Lisa Ventura fined herself for forgetting to invite Barbara Springstead to the SAS Dinner.
- Mickey Schultz's had several happy dollars: Her niece ran in the Boston Marathon; due to their mistake, the Finger Lakes Times will run the SAS dinner ad for free all week; went to Ohio to visit her grandson where the temp was 77 degrees; and finally she was grateful to Jessica Grant for helping a friend get a job at the hotel.
- Charlie Bartishevich had a sad dollar for Kelly Bradley leaving.
- Phil Beckley noted that John Watson stopped by the house while he was watching "Jeopardy". There was a question about "Moon Pies" vs. "Whoopie Pies" – Phil had the wrong answer – it was "Whoopie Pie" and John brought him one today to prove it! (Boy, these happy dollars get stranger every day!)
- And if it wasn't enough that Mary Lawler's grandson won a medal at the Winter Olympics, now he will be on "Dancing with the Stars"!! He will make his debut on April 30! (We'll be watching!)

50/50

Ellen Wayne split $101/$52 with Polio Plus. (Again!)

Program

Shad introduced our speakers, Rhonda Destino and Adam Blowers from the City of Geneva, and Andrea Calarco from Casella Waste Management.

First Rhonda spoke about Geneva Neighborhood Resource Center (GNRC) May Maintenance Month. Highlights include:

- Collaboration with GNRC, City and Town Department Staff and Casella Waste Management
- May 12th Geneva-Wide Clean Up Day. Both Town and City transfer stations will be open from 9-3 p.m. On this day, they will be accepting E-waste, lawn debris,

- cardboard, scrap metal, recycling, construction materials and many other items. However, hazardous waste will not be accepted at this time.
- Pick-up will be available for the elderly and disabled.
- Looking for volunteers
- Castle Heights Plant Exchange at Lafayette Circle
- May 19: “Sound the Alarm” – Geneva Fire Department will install free smoke detectors and provide batteries.

Andrea Calarco of Casella Waste Management presented a video on the Zero-Sort recycling process. This was an interesting “inside look” on how recycling is sorted. The categories include:

- Cardboard/paper
- Plastic
- Metal
- Glass
