Interact Bake Sale! Bring your checkbook!

Past president Dick Austin led our meeting today. Dick led us in the pledge and Rev. Jim Adams gave the invocation.

Announcements

- Susie Flick announced that the Library will be having their Taste of Jazz event this Sunday from 2:00-4:30. Tickets are $20.00 pre-sale at the library or Wegmans, or $25.00 at the door. There will be music by Johnny Russo and his band, tastings from Billsboro Winery and delicious food from Wegmans, and a selection of raffle baskets.
- Chris Fitzgerald, Stephanie Hessler and Jeremy Wattles will be having a meeting with the HWS Rotaract Club on Feb. 21 at 6:30pm. If you would like to attend, please let Stephanie know.
- Mary Lawthers announced that our next Rotary Social will be at the American Legion on Friday, February 16. We will meet at the bar between 5:30-5:45 and then have dinner.
- John Watson announced that there is a new Roc City Rotary that they are forming. The group is all 30 and under and they meet at a bar for a few drinks and then have their meeting. Sounds fun John! Dick asked for a show of hands of anyone at the meeting today that was under 30...there were none.
- There is a get well card at the greeter table today for Tara for everyone to sign.
- Lisa Toole, chair of the Ralph Springstead nominations is taking nominations until February 12th. You can email, text, call, fax, mail, tell her in person, or send a pigeon, just get her those nominations.

Fines/Happy Dollars

- Kelly Bradley was happy to have been in Las Vegas to attend an awards ceremony for Ashley. Out of 800 stores, the Geneva store came in #2! She had a sad dollar as well, because when she got home, she came down with the flu.
- Chris Lavin is happy because the HWS tutors are back and because he got a lot done today since Trina's decision was to close school.
- John Watson was happy because Phil Beckley was wearing socks! Phil even took a moment to model his lovely socks for us.
- Ellen Wayne gave a dollar to have Phil stop modeling.
- John-O had a dollar for a book about Holy Angels written by Marc Thomas who is from Geneva and went to DeSales. Our own Johnny-O and, "Digger" (Jim DeVaney) were both mentioned in the book.
- Mary Lawthers was happy because her Grandson has arrived in South Korea for the Olympics. Keep a lookout for Chris Mazdzer who competes in the luge. Check out this link to read more about Chris <http://www.nbcolympics.com/news/who-chris-mazdzer>
- Dave Cook gave a dollar because Jim DeVaney's hair was messed up.
- Dick was happy because his oldest daughter turned 8 on Sunday.

50/50

Jerry Forcier split $32/$32 with Polio Plus. AGAIN!!

Program

We were treated to a lovely President's Day program that was first started by Rotarian Fred Toole. After Fred passed away, Paul Kirsch continued the tradition and now Fred's daughter, Lisa proudly carries on the tradition that her father started. Dick Austin gave a fantastic reading of the Gettysburg Address.

American Legion Fundraiser

On Saturday, February 17th there is the fundraiser at the American Legion for Ally Beavers. She is four years old and was diagnosed with kidney cancer. The money raised at the event will help her family with the medical bills. We will have time slots of two hours available starting at 12:30pm until 4:00pm. We will be face painting, playing games and helping to set up the event, selling raffle tickets, etc.

Community Lunch Program

Over February break we have two opportunities to volunteer. One on Tuesday the 20th and the other Thursday the 22nd. We only need to help serve the food so arrive at the Methodist church downtown at 11am.

Bottle Collection

To raise money for the senior class's Substance Free Party, we will be helping collect cans. Last week many Interactors set up flyers about the can drive and on Sun February 11th at 11:30 am we will be collecting them. The meeting place will be at the Mittiga's on White Springs.

Our next meeting will be Tuesday February 13th.

From,
Kate Equinozzi
