2018

Next week:

President Shad led us in the pledge and Jim Adams gave the invocation

Interact

Kate Equinozzi
Anna Humiston
Caitlin Canario

Guests

Ashley Champion – prospective member and guest of Dick Austin
Scott Avedisian – prospective member and guest of Jim DeVaney

Announcements

- Peter Einset announced that he will be talking about John Peter Zenger at the Library this evening.
- Ellen Wayne announced that next Thursday, the Women's Leadership Group will be touring the Smith Opera House and having a light lunch at the Cracker Factory. If you would like to go, please let Ellen know. Sorry gents, this outing is only open to women. Ellen also announced that the Empty Bowls dinner will be on Tuesday, October 16 and is $20 a ticket.
- Dave Cook will be looking for help for the Camp Onseyawa fundraiser that Rylie J's will be having. It will be similar to the Cubby Chase help we give in the summer. The Santa Train tickets are now available at the Smith Opera House and are $20 each. Dave will get tickets for you at $18 each, but you need to let him know by next Wednesday.

September Birthdays

The following Rotarians celebrated birthdays in September:

Charlie Bauder
Bill Buell
Mary Lawthers
Deb Lind

Bill Buell led us in song to wish them a Happy Birthday!

Fines/Happy Dollars

- Chris Lavin was happy that he has been able to spend some time hearing some of Mary Luckern's stories. Mary will be honored at the B & G Club annual dinner on October 18. Chris has four tickets left for Dr. Alexander's home raffle.
- Ellen Wayne was happy that the winner of the side of beef, donated it back to the community lunch program. Ellen was also happy that after having a not so great day yesterday, she stopped at the casino with $20 to play and won big! Way to go Ellen!
- Ruth Leo was happy to have run into Chris Fazio, mother of Stephen Fazio (one of the Interact President's from 2 years ago). Stephen is on a two year mission in Brazil before returning to college at Georgia Tech. (If anyone would like to read his blogs, let Ruthie know.)
- Ken Steadman had a happy dollar and a story about an exchange student from Russia that I didn't quite catch on my side of the room. Sorry Ken
- Jim Dickson announced to Dave Cook that the Michigan Wolverines are back!
- Bob McCarthy just returned from a trip to Prince Edward Island. While he was there, he went tuna fishing and caught a 10ft, 900lb tuna!! Yes, he has a picture.
- Bill Buell had a dollar because he loves to read the comics every day, but anymore he finds that he has no idea what they are talking about!
- Dave Cook had a sad dollar for hitting a deer with his new car. He also let Jim know that his team NEVER loses. Dave is always happy to switch loyalty at any time if the win is in sight.
- Trina Newton was able to visit her mom in Charlotte, who survived the hurricane unscathed. Trina's brother on the other hand, is still dealing with a lot of flooding.

50/50

Stephanie Hesler split $54/54 with Polio Plus.

Program

Today we had a club assembly. We started off watching the video the club made for their 75 anniversary. Jim Dickson then announced that our 100th anniversary gala celebration will be on Saturday, April 27, 2019. The club is asking all members to contribute to the foundation for this event. Jim explained that each $1000 raised, allows for a Paul Harris Award to be given. The Paul Harris committee will be looking for new members, if you are interested, please let Jim know. You must be a Paul Harris Fellow in order to be on the committee. The committee will soon be asking for nominations for Paul Harris awards, so if you think a member is deserving of this honor, let someone on the committee know.

In response to Jim's appeal, John Oughterson handed over a $100 check to the Foundation to kick off the fundraising. (Thanks Johnny!)
