Happy/Sad Dollars

- Johnny O. had a happy dollar for his picture in the paper
- Jason Haag apologized for not bringing the 90 degree weather back with him from Florida. He will be travelling to Baltimore next week hoping the weather will be better there!
- Shad Cook was happy that he taught his son how to vacuum the pool.
- Ted Baker was happy for the GHS lacrosse team winning the Section 5 title.
- Mickey Schultz is pouring wine at Fox Run, and husband Ed doing the same at Anthony Road Winery. Come visit! Also, she is happy to be closer to Geneva as her granddaughter will be going to HWS. As a graduating senior, she recently received an award from her school board in Pennsylvania.
- Ellen Wayne recently visited Chicago.
- John Watson had a happy dollar "just because"!
- Charlie Wilson had a happy dollar in advance of our musical program.
- Dave Cook was happy that Mickey had her happy dollar, and not an IOU! He also updated us on the name of his new puppy – not Archibald – but Angus!! He also reported that the dog's uneven ears have been corrected and not experiencing a medical condition which I will not elaborate on here!!
- Bill McGowan is happy that eagles are making a comeback! He recently witnessed one's diving and fishing skills. Quite impressive!
- Mary Lawthers was happy and thankful for Geoff Herd and his efforts towards the Geneva Music Festival.

New Member Induction

Our newest Rotarian, Kate Silverstrim-Jensen, was introduced by her sponsor, Joyce Keeney. Kate is a resident of Hall, NY where she lives with her husband, Thom, stepsons Collin and Ayden, and their many pets. She was born and raised in the Mohawk Valley Region of Upstate New York and graduated from Syracuse University with a B.A. in Anthropology. Although she has worked in several different career fields, she has always held service and integrity above all else. In 2017, Kate was elected as the Town Clerk for the Town of Seneca. She is also chair of the Town of Seneca Republican Committee, assists with the Ontario County Fair website, and recently was appointed Treasurer of the Stanley Fire District. When she isn't at Town Hall, you will find Kate cheering her kids on at sporting events, caring for her flock of chickens, or enjoying a glass of Finger Lakes wine. She is excited to join the Geneva Rotary community and really looks forward to getting to know everyone.

Welcome, Kate!!

Interact Report – May 28

Kate began the meeting after school, at 2:44 pm. First she announced that Green Club was willing to present at the Interact led Rotary meeting, that will take place on June 12th.

It was decided by the club that of the money that Interact has raised, 50% will go to the Backpack Program, 25% will go to Thrive to Survive, and the remaining 25% will go to this year's International Project.

Within the next upcoming weeks, the club will vote on officers for next year, so it is reminded to have nominees in mind.

Just a reminder to seniors, interest-free educational loans are available in the Guidance Office, which are generously provided by the Geneva Rotary Club. The applications are due by Saturday, June 1st, and can be emailed to our club's adviser, Susie Flick.

Kate adjourned the meeting at 2:51 pm.
