2019

Next week:
Ron Alcock – Geneva
Mayor

President Mary led us in the Pledge, the Four-Way Test, and gave an invocation.

5 Minute Speaker – no speaker this week

November 20 – Palma Fratto-Evans and Scott Avedesian

November 27 – Chris Lavin and Taryn Windheim

Announcements

- Dave cook announced that on Wednesday, November 27 (the day before Thanksgiving) we will be having a roundtable. Dave also announced that there are a few tickets available for the Santa Train! Let him know if you want them. There is a sign-up sheet going around for anyone that would like to work for the Santa Train. As a reminder, it is December 7 and the trains run at 10:00am, 11:30 am, 1:00pm, 2:30 pm and 4:00pm.
- Dick announced that Rotary will be cooking for the Community Lunch Program this Tuesday, November 19. Please be there at 8:00am.

50/50

Karen Luttrell split $37/$37 with Polio Plus.

Fines and Happy Dollars

- John Watson fined Phil Beckley for having his photo in the paper
- Dave Cook had a happy dollar for his trip to Duke University for the Duke/ Notre Dame Game. He had a great time with Jim DeVaney, John O. and his nephew at their seats in the first row!

- Karen Luttrell was happy to help her daughter move this weekend to a beautiful Victorian Farmhouse in Phelps. Her back still hurts, but she is happy to have her closer.

Program

Our speaker didn't show today, so we played a fun game of trivia. The questions were a bit hard, and team 1 won by one point. (Ed. Note: Don't let Dave pick the questions next time!)
