June Birthdays

We sang Happy Birthday to the only June celebrant here today – Shad Cook.

Happy Dollars

- Ted Baker had a happy dollar in appreciation of Mary’s presidency

- Jason Haag was glad to be back and that his “little one” graduated from kindergarten!
- Dave Cook reminded us of the $20 happy dollars he paid last week as promised in our ZOOM meetings. Next week, as he takes over as President, he will be fining anyone who hasn’t paid up!.
- Peter Einset paid a fine for his photo in the paper
- Helen Kelley welcomed her first grandchild this week! Congratulations Helen!
- Ruth Leo remembered her dad on his birthday today. He would have been 110!
- Jim Dickson also had a happy dollar for Mary’s presidency and congratulated her on a job well done.
- Shad Cook also had a happy dollar for Mary.
- Dave Cook reported that Dick Austin’s Great Dane, Rooster, had emergency surgery and is expected to make a complete recovery. He paid Dick’s “happy dollar” since Dick may not have any money left after paying the $7000 vet bill!!

Changeover

Mary reflected on her tenure as president.

- She became president the same day that Bill Buell and Paul Kirsch announced that they would no longer be attending meetings. That was a blow, as she was looking forward to working with both of them!
- She thanked John Watson for starting the “round robin” rotation at the Greeter’s Table and rotating the collection for 50/50.
- Accomplishments for the year were great, in spite of COVID-19. Unfortunately, we had to cancel the Service above Self dinner, but thanked Shad Cook and Margaret Wiant who served as co-chairs. Fortunately, the sponsors who contributed financially to the dinner told us we did not have to return their donations.
- Mary was grateful for the opportunity to have served as our President. (and we are grateful to you, Mary!)

Mary introduced the new officers and board members:

New Officers: President –elect: Stephanie Hesler
 Vice President: Jerry Forcier
 Treasurer: Bob McFadden
 Secretary: Ford Weiskittel

New Board Members: Scott “Scooter” Avedisian
 Mary Gere-Penna
 Rich Kasulke
 Ruth Leo

After the introductions, Mary presented Dave with his President’s pin and plaque.

As his first duty as President, Dave asked all past Presidents to come forward and give a “virtual” handshake to Mary. He then handed out pins to the new officers. In addition, he gave Mary a pin with the “4-way Test” on it, and a “Sheriff’s” pin to Johnny O. as the official Sergeant at Arms.

Dave’s goals for the year are to have a good time and to never get up early in the morning to “tweet” anyone!
