50/50

Ken Steadman split $68/$34 with Polio Plus.

Fines and Happy Dollars

- Mary Lawthers, Dave Cook, Johnny O., and Stephanie Hesler all paid up for having their pictures in the paper
- Ted Baker had a happy dollar for the Interactors conducting the meeting last week.
- Jim Dickson was happy that he got a picture of the new comet this morning.
- Ruth Leo had a sad dollar for missing her first Board meeting as a new member, as her I-pad kept cutting out of the meeting.
- Ken Steadman was happy that his street is finally getting paved.
- Jason Haag had an op-ed in the paper regarding reform in Medicare. (Jason, I'm not sure if I got his right!)
- Dick Austin was happy that his dog, Rooster, got his staples removed today after having extensive surgery. (Good news, Dick!) He also thanked Dave Cook and Ted Baker for their kind words about the restaurant on the radio.
- Dave Cook fined Mike Rusinko, just because he could!
- Jim DeVaney congratulated the Sculli's on buying a new house in Waterloo.

Program

President-Elect Stephanie Hesler introduced a recorded presentation by Jeffry Cadorette, Rotary International Director, who gave the keynote address at the District 7120 Change Over meeting on June 27.

Highlights included:

- Proud of Rotary International and how quickly they responded to the Global Pandemic
- 80-85% of Clubs are connected virtually.
- We are determined to stay connected to our communities
- Rotary Foundation trustees allocated money for grants, creating $25,000 COVID 19 grants
- Raised over $5 million on 220 COVID 19 District grants
- Proposed a global task force to take a comprehensive look at optimizing virtual connectivity.

Future programs

July 22 – Chris Lavin

July 29 – Joyce Jacobsen, HWS President

Submitted by Ruth Leo for Chris FitzGerald

Four way test:

“Of the things we think, say or do:”

1. Is it The Truth?

2. Is it Fair to All Concerned?

3. Will it Build Goodwill and Better Friendships?

4. Will it be beneficial for All Concerned?
