No Visiting Rotarians

Guests Mr. Quinn, Amanda Reynolds, and Chris Schuster

Announcements

- Geneva Rotarian John Rossi, GCC Pro, gave a report on the Geneva Rotary Golf Tournament. Seven Teams raised more than $1000 for the Geneva D.A.R.E. Program. Even though the number of teams was fewer than hoped for, GCC was glad to host it. Special thanks to Jim Devaney and Johnny O. for organizing the day and to Lisa Toole and Stephanie Hesler for helping. Geneva Rotarians Shad Cook and Jeff Pierce were two of the members of the winning team.
- Stephanie Hesler: today's meeting was not available on Zoom since Ford W. fell and broke his ankle. We wish him a speedy recovery.
- Jason Haag agreed to set up a monkey survey to solicit ideas for future programs for our meetings.
- Dave Cook reported that ideas are in the works for a virtual 2020 Santa Train, via zoom, where families can purchase various "packages". Money raised would cover our club's assessment for Camp Onseyawa.

50/50 Jim DeVaney was the winner, sharing $44/$22 with Polio Plus. He generously "tipped" Young Mr. Quinn of the Cub Scouts.

Happy Birthday August Rotarians

Mr. Quinn also led us in song to wish four Rotarians Happy August Birthday : Trina Newton, Charlie Wilson, Stephanie Hesler, and Bill McGowan

Happy/Sad Dollars and Fines:

- Ruth Leo: Happy/Sad: Kerry Lippincott will replace Chris Fitzgerald as one of four scribes who takes notes at our meetings. Thank you, Chris, for your service.
- Jason Haag: $10 for his photo in the New York Post and for his Dad who will soon have surgery for oral cancer. His prognosis is good!
- Ted Baker: Gov. Cuomo's decision to allow some high school sports to begin in September
- Tara Rago: her new job/promotion to the Canandaigua branch of LNB will mean that she transfers her Rotary affiliation but she assured us that her replacement will join our club. Good Luck Tara! The Geneva Rotary Club thanks you for your service above self!
- Dave Cook: lost Angus' doggie bag to Phil Beckley who accidentally grabbed two bags after a steak dinner. Since Linda Beckley might have been an accomplice, Dave made history in fining a husband and wife team. PS, Phil ate it. Angus got none.
- Ted Baker: paid a fine for saying "we need more Cub Scouts" following Mr. Quinn's rendition of Happy Birthday

Program

Our guest speakers today are from Cub Scout Pack 5, Geneva, and were introduced by Rotarian and Cub Master Jason Haag. Amanda Reynolds and Chris Schuster presented the Two-Deep Leadership program, along with young Mr. Quinn who accompanied them as ambassador. They highlighted many of the benefits of scouting, such as learning how to be trustworthy, cheerful, honest, obedient, kind, and hopeful. Some of the core values they demonstrate in scouting are leadership, citizenship, service, physical fitness, and civic responsibility. The Cub Scouts, ages K-5th grade, learn many things some adults can't do, such as start fires without fuel, detect signs of strokes, and purify water. They also take part in monthly pack hikes. Pack 5 is always in search of counselors to teach and serve the important skills learned in scouting.
