Program

Kerry Lippincott introduced our speaker, Anwei Law, one of the founders of the Seneca Falls It’s A Wonderful Life Museum. The museum was founded in 2010 and is located in Seneca Falls’ first theater. The museum’s three day It’s A Wonderful Life Festival has gone virtual this year and will be held December 11-13. Among the activities are presentations by the actors who played the Baily children, a virtual 5k walk/run, Zoom plays, and a tour of sites in California where the movie was made. For a schedule and a list of programs visit their website <https://www.wonderfullifemuseum.com/>. To attend the festival, people must register through the website. Next year will be the movie’s 75th anniversary and the museum is planning a variety of activities.
