Next Week: James
Williams on his trip to Slovakia

President Dave led the Zoom meeting of about 23 Rotarians with the Pledge of Allegiance.

Announcements

- Ted Baker hosted the District Governor on the radio this morning. There will be a regular broadcast the 2nd Wednesday of each month @ 8:35 a.m. For more information, check out FLDailyNews.com. President Dave commented on Ted's hat sporting an image of Abner Doubleday, baseball's mascot.
- *Reminder: when attending a ZOOM meeting, please MUTE your microphone unless you are about to speak. It will cut down on the background noise. Also, Ruth Leo requested that members identify themselves when speaking, as she is unable to see everyone at once on her screen when taking notes. (Thanks, guys!)

Happy Dollars

- Richard Kasulke was happy to see a "light at the end of the tunnel" for the COVID vaccine being available.
- Jim Dickson was Happy and Sad for the Big !0. (Sorry, Jim, I didn't get all of this!)
- Stephanie Hesler is happy for the Buffalo Bills win and that her son was there to watch with them.
- Susie Flick had an interview with Evan Dawson.
- John O. was happy to have a meeting yesterday with former Interactor, James Williams. He will be our speaker next week to discuss his time in Slovakia.
- Ken Steadman is happy for our Youth Exchange activities.
- Ted Baker enjoyed his time bell-ringing this year with Scooter Avedisian.
- Dave Cook noticed that Jim DeVaney is sporting a goatee and new glasses.

Random Topics of Discussion

- Jerry Forcier noted that other Rotary Clubs are doing fundraising during COVID, and that we should consider doing some kind of project to raise funds. Jim Dickson suggested a “virtual” comedy night with other clubs. Jerry and Jim will look into this further.
- Phil Beckley was invited by Waterloo Rotary to their virtual meeting. Their speaker was a mental health consultant who discussed how to improve your mood during the COVID lockdown. Such as:
 - Writing down your goals,
 - Improve your serotonin levels with more hugs
 - Smile more often
 - Deep breathing exercises
- Since the Inauguration will be held next Wednesday at noon, it was suggested that we meet at 11:00 instead of 12:00. Stephanie and Dave will coordinate and send out a notification confirming this.

Program

Stephanie introduced our own Kerry Lippincott who entertained us with a visual trivia contest. Several images of Geneva landmarks were displayed for us to guess what they were and where they were located. It was a lot of fun and we look forward to doing it again!
