Announcements

- Johnnie O – Dan Quigley is doing well.
- Susie Flick – The Library is hosting a discussion with the filmmaker of "Alice's Ordinary People" tonight at 6 pm. A link to register is on the library's website.

- Stephanie Hesler – The grant workshop is Saturday morning and anyone wishing to attend can contact her. March 26 is a day of giving for the Smith and more information to come on that event.
- Helen Kelly – On March 27 from 11 – 7 there is a fundraising event for the Homestead at Abandon Brewing. There will be food, music, beer and basket raffle.
- Bob McFadden – The Interactors raised $203 through their bottle and can drive (that’s over a 4,000 cans). Kudos to the Interactors

Happy Dollars and Fines

- Dave Cook – Last night he discovered a new restaurant, The White Rabbit, in Henrietta and all they serve is dessert. His rotator cuff surgery went well.
- Johnnie O. – Attended a Zoom district meeting about membership and it was a good meeting.
- Susie Flick – Paid a fine for missing last week and not taking notes.
- Brien Ashdown – Received his second vaccine shot.
- Chris Fitzgerald – Her son is returning to Marist for the spring semester.

Program

Kerry introduced Anna Wager who is the Clarence A. Davis Visual Arts Curator at HWS. As the curator Anna oversees the Davis Gallery at Houghton House and the College’s Collections. She gave a brief history of the Davis Gallery. Houghton House was a private home before the Colleges acquired it in the 1940s. Prior to the building becoming home to the College’s Art Department In 1970 it was a dorm. Over 1800 art works are in the permanent collection with a concentration in prints and drawings. The latest exhibit Worn closes on March 1. Upcoming exhibits are Better Than Good and Hairs Stories Untold. The exhibits will be open from March 5 to April 25. The Gallery is open Monday to Friday from 9 am to 2 pm and by appointment More information about the Gallery can be found at <https://www2.hws.edu/davis-gallery/> and Anna can be contacted at wager@hws.edu.
