Wednesday,
Sept. 29, 2021

Next week:

James Warren, Magician and
Motivational Speaker

President Stephanie led us in the Pledge of Allegiance and gave the invocation.

Guests

Cori Wheeler, Ibero Business Center-Geneva and speaker

Announcements

Another lakefront clean-up will be held on October 23 at 9 am. On the same day weeding will be done on the Club's adopted garden bed at the lakefront. Please bring gloves, pruning shears, and trowels.

To thank our servers, Kate and Audra, the hat will be passed around during lunch.

As a reminder, next week's meeting will be held at Bella's.

A fundraising dinner for Camp Onseyawa will be held on October 16 at Club 86. Please let President Stephanie know if you plan on attending.

Happy/Sad Dollars

- Susie Flick was very excited to hold the first in-person Interact meeting in two years on Tuesday. 22 students attended the meeting and there is a new teacher advisor.
- Ruthie Leo thanked those who have provided positive feedback on the weekly wrap-ups. (A fourth person is still needed to help with the wrap-ups),
- Chris Lavin announced that in honor of its 25th Anniversary, the Boys and Girls Club will be hosting a Giving Day on Thursday. All proceeds will go towards the Club's Forever Fund (endowment). To make a donation go to <https://bgcgeneva.org/>.
- President Stephanie fined Charlie Bartishevich for not attending a meeting in a while.
- Jim Dickson is happy for Michigan's four wins.
- Carol Chester was very happy that her phone was found at a restaurant in Victor.
- Jim DeVaney is happy that Notre Dame is 4-0, the Yankees are on a winning streak, and the Americans won the Ryder Cup.

50/50

Carol Chester shared $82 ($41/$41) with the Foundation. Congrats Carol!

September Birthdays

Charlie Bartishevich led us in song to wish a Happy Birthday to our Rotarians celebrating in September!

Program

Jerry Forcier introduced Cori Wheeler with the Ibero Business Center-Geneva. She shared information about the Business Center.

- Funded by New York State, the Entrepreneurial Assistance Program assists anyone (especially veterans, minorities, and women) who want to start a new business or need help with their current business. The program has business centers located around the state.
- The business center in Geneva opened in June 2021 and is part of the Ibero-American Action League. The center serves 11 counties.
- The center's services include
  - A ten-week business training course. By the end of the course participants will have a business plan. 13 people are currently enrolled in the course.
  - One-on-one assistance or mentorships for course graduates
  - Assistance with preparing and submitting the Minority and Women-Owned Enterprise Certification Application
  - Assistance with grant applications
- For more information contact Cori at cori.wheeler@iaal.org or visit www.iberobusinesscenter.org.
