Next week:

New Member Inductions

President Stephanie led the Pledge of Allegiance, gave an invocation and sadly, asked for a moment of silence to remember Rotarian Dan Quigley.

Guest

Scott Cook

Visiting

Welcome back to Mary Gere-Penna who is working in the Binghamton school district, overseeing secondary guidance. Mary maintains her Geneva apartment and looks forward to summer in the FLX.

It was great to see Mary and to join her at the December Birthday table, along with Ted Baker, Dave Cook, Bill Flood, Carol Chester, and in absentia, Scott Avedisian, John Rossi, Margaret Wiant, and Chris Fitzgerald. We sang a chorus of Happy Birthday after lunch. Reminder, a check of your chosen amount to the Geneva Library will be appreciated.

Announcements:

- Stephanie: there will be two inductions next week!
- Jim Devaney: Funeral for Dan Quigley will be Tuesday at 10 AM at St. Stephen's Church.
- Dave Cook: The "BUD" car can be seen at the RR property in Border City. Dave said it is very sharp, silver in color, and looks like a perfect potential Wine Train. Rotarian Harvey Ressig is interested in a reprisal.
- Charlie Bauder: Thanks to those Geneva Rotarians who rang the Salvation Army bell on Christmas Eve day. The collection hours changed this year so next year, we will plan on scheduling from 9 to 3 instead of 10 to 4.

- Phil Beckley is collecting photos of Rotary projects.

Happy Dollars

- Mary Gere-Penna is happy to see everyone.
- Dave Cook is happy to listen to rock and roll music on The Wall, since his Sirius Subscription ran out while his car was in the repair shop. Ozzie Osborn!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! He sings clearly but no way Dave can understand his non-music verbiage.
- Ted Baker is happy that FingerLakes1 was able to broadcast the Christmas Eve service from St. Peter’s Church.
- Jim Dickson was sorry to miss the bell ringing on Christmas Eve due to a trip to Washington, DC but the warm temp there was a welcome change from dark and drizzling here. He also showed off the new sign board which Geneva Rotary will display for events.

Reminder: Rotary dues payable, per emailed invoice or mail to...
 Rotary Club of Geneva, Attn Bob McFadden, Club Treasurer, PO Box 1144 , Geneva, NY 14456 or pay up in person at weekly meeting.

50/50

Bob Stenzel, after some “confusion”, shared $46 with the Foundation.

Program

Thanks to Kerry Lippincott, we enjoyed some Christmas trivia. Fortunately, no fruit cake from Steuben County was served but thanks to Rotarian and restaurateur Dick Austin, we did enjoy a delicious lasagna lunch
