Next week:

International Rotary Day

President Stephanie opened the meeting at Bella's today with the Pledge of Allegiance and an invocation. She thanked Audra and Ashley for their excellent service, often above and beyond, and Susie Flick for making an attractive TIPS sign which sits at the check-in desk. Special thanks to Charlie Bartishevich for inviting Kelsey Journell to sit with him.

No Visiting Rotarians or Guests

Announcements

- There will be a District Training Assembly on April 9th. Our club pays for six participants. See Stephanie or Jim Dickson for more info.
- Save this date: Friday, April 8th, 100th Anniversary Dinner of the Penn Yan Rotary Club (which the Geneva Club sponsored).
- Next week: We will honor a non-Rotarian with a Paul Harris Award. Please remember to wear your medallions. Our District Governor will attend.
- Stephanie reminded us that Rotary will be hosting Business After Hours on Wed., March 9, 5:00-7:00 p.m. at Bella's. Let her know if you can help.
- Susie Flick: Historic Geneva will conduct an on-line auction. If any Rotarian or business has interest in making a donation, please email Susie at sflick@pls-net.org Susie is a board member at Historic Geneva.
- Ken Steadman reminded us that the Dove Block has opened and is hosting an art exhibit. Please support it.

- Helen Kelly and Kelsey Journell are co-chairing the Service Above Self event. Expect a survey soon. Any Rotarian interested in helping with this, please let Stephanie, Helen or Kelsey know.
- February 27 is International Rotary Day. The leader of each assigned committee will give a presentation.

Happy/Sad Dollars

- Dave Cook and Johnny O played a very successful card game recently. Scooter and Palma? Not so lucky!
- Helen Kelly celebrated two engagements in her family (two of her sons), a visit to her first grandbaby in San Diego and the recent birth of her second grandchild. Congratulations!
- Bob Stenzel's daughter Kelly has been named the first woman on the board of Golf Magazine.
- Charlie Bartishevich has taken up skiing this winter, joining his wife and kids. A recent downhill adventure sent him into the powder where he face-planted, skis flying off, caution to the wind! Charlie, we call that a yard sale.....but we admire your courage.
- Scott Avedisian offered his last dollar: the only one Dave Cook didn't win.
- And one sad dollar from Ruth Leo, marking the recent passing of her classmate Barb Wiley Fuge. Barb was an active member of Canandaigua Rotary and an Athena recipient.

50/50

Dick Austin shared $84 dollars with his wait staff, marking the first win for Dick. It's about time. You can't win if you don't play.....but you certainly are generous.

Program

Michael Mills from the BID, who was to be our speaker, got his signals crossed so we improvised on a program today. President Stephanie asked us to suggest ideas for weekly speakers which she will relay to Gerry Forcier.

Here are some suggestions: FLHealth CEO Jose Acevedo, Ex-Geneva School Superintendent Patricia Garcia (doubtful), any member of Geneva City Council, someone from the Tech Farm at Cornell, President Jacobsen from HWS, any winery or brewery owners, Cider Tasting (home brew craft cider as soon as it's bottled), Katie Flowers, Community Engagement at HWS, a representative from the DARE program, Geneva teachers' Organization President, Ferris Hills representative or anyone from senior living communities, Mary Beers from Ontario County Health Department, representative from Geneva Reads, representative from the Ontario County Humane Society, the ARC, FL RR, Mary Gearan via zoom, The Mayor of Geneva

Respectfully submitted,
Carol Chester
