Wednesday,
March 23,
2022

Next week: GSD: Dr.
Kathleen Davis, Acting
Superintendent and
Maureen Lee, Interim
Director of Education

President Stephanie led the Pledge of Allegiance and gave an invocation.

No Visiting Rotarians

Guest:

Linda Sutherland, Wildflower Inn, Geneva bed and breakfast owner

Announcements:

- Susie Flick: Geneva Public Library Book Sale begins April 4, at $1 per book, continuing to week 2 at $2 per bag of books. Currently, there is a basket raffle in progress at the library. There are 90 baskets in the raffle. Check the FB page or stop in at the library to purchase tickets.
- Mary Lawthers: Save the Date: April 23, lakefront clean-up
- President Stephanie: April 8th, Penn Yan Rotary celebration, 100th birthday dinner at Esperanza; June 3: Bash at the Bines (Climbing Bines Brewery on Seneca Lake, Dresden), and March 25th, 24 hour on-line giving day for the Smith Opera House
- Phil Beckley: Friday morning, 8:30, WGVA, Helen Kelley and Kelsey Journell will talk about the SAS event

Happy Dollars

- Stephanie Hesler will soon begin a new (hybrid) job at Cornell in Alumni Affairs and Development. Congrats!
- Ted Baker: $5 for participation on the Geneva Rotary Team in the Canandaigua Rotary bowl-a-thon with Stephanie, Jason Haag, and Rosalyn Grammar

- Ken Steadman has updated his business cards and in offering one to Jim Devaney, he reminded Jim that he has no need yet for Jim's card! Jim rebutted with another happy dollar...and HIS card! LOL
- Peter Einset recently visited the Cayuga County museum in Auburn and enjoyed the Ted Case Exhibit. Auburn is the birthplace of Sound Film. Later in the meeting, Peter talked about his interest in film and the film industry in the Finger Lakes area in Ithaca, Auburn, Rochester, and Montour Falls.
- The tip jar was passed around today for Ashley who worked lunch solo.
- Gerry Forcier made a significant donation to the Foundation today, apologizing for the lack of a speaker/program.

50/50

Helen Kelley shared $81 with the Foundation.

The meeting today was adjourned a bit early but a lively and worthwhile planning committee meeting took place after lunch re: the SAS event. Linda Sutherland was welcomed to the committee! The event, a garden party theme, will take place at Rose Hill mansion on May 12, 2022, honoring Robert Schick with the Springstead award and raising money for Geneva Rotary projects. Tickets will soon be available on Event Brite. Helen Kelley and Kelsey Journell are co-chairing this event.

Respectfully submitted,
Carol Chester

Next week: GSD: Dr. Kathleen Davis, Acting Superintendent and Maureen Lee, Interim Director of Business and Finance to discuss annual school budget.
