Happy Dollars

- Stephanie Hesler survived her first day on the new job at Cornell. Ironically, her office is on Seneca St. in downtown Ithaca as was her Hobart office here in Geneva.

- Dave Cook played the Easter Bunny last Sunday in Waterloo. He is happy to say that he survived some physical abuse from the kids!
- Jim DeVaney played golf in Arizona last week, but got sick on the plane on the way home. Turns out he was just dehydrated! He's happy that the Yankees won again and that Notre Dame will be playing Syracuse soon.
- Peter Einset is going to New York City for three days to see a few Broadway musicals. He plans to take an express bus from Cornell in Ithaca to NYC.
- Ruth Leo had a wonderful time in Florida, but was sad to have to come back home. She thanked Kerry Lippincott and Ford Weiskittel for filling in for her while she was gone. (See a Rotary related picture attached to this wrap-up!)

50/50

Jerry Forcier shared $71 ($35/36) with the Rotary Foundation.

Program

Jerry introduced our own Dave Cook as our speaker today. Dave shared some information on Camp ONSEYAWA. Highlights included:

- 100 kids with disabilities are enrolled every year (most are local)
- Kids are encouraged to sign up on line.
- Held at Camp Babcock Hovey Boy Scout Camp
- "Ambassadors" work with the kids
- A lot of activities include arts and crafts and photography.

Dave explained some of the duties of the Board which meets once a month in Clifton Springs. They vote every year on what the budget should be for running the camp which includes:

- Two nurses
- Counselors
- Maintaining the Swimming Pool
- Maintaining the Bath House
- Proceeds from the Santa Train go to the camp

Dave encouraged everyone to help out with the camp if you can. He also noted that your purchases on Amazon can benefit the camp.

Phil Beckley explained that the Camp got started by two Geneva Rotary Members – Neil Marvin and Don Vogt. (Phil wasn't sure of this name!)

Respectfully submitted,

Ruth Leo
