Happy Dollars

- *Phil Beckley confessed to possessing someone else's jacket, taken by mistake from Bella's coat rack and to reading the wrong number for the 50/50 raffle, won by Jason Haag, truth be told. Five Hail Marys, Phil... and wash Jason's car
- *Rich Kasulke shared the wrong number shame, so... five Our Fathers, Rich and for slacking off on the balloon sale, wash the porch at Rose Hill
- Carol Chester had five happy dollars for a fabulous family wedding experience and travel to Charleston, SC
- Jason Haag had dollars for Phil's fessing up honesty and for missing the Garden Party which he sponsored as well as bought tickets to attend...duty called
- Charlie Wilson is back from Florida, just in time to collect trash on Route 14!
- John Watson is (in the words of Bill Buell) simply grateful!
- Ruth Leo is happy that the Garden Party was so successful. She thanked Neil Sjoblom for the fabulous photos and the committee for their work to make it so lovely. A sad dollar for Helen Kelley who fell ill the day of the event...hope she has rebounded quickly

- Roslyn Grammar is celebrating the return of the concert season at CMAC with tickets to see Kenny Chesney and is also counting down to her cross-country trip.
- Stephanie Hesler fined herself for missing the count on having the right change for lunch: that 2 quarter pile? Only a quarter and a nickel! LOL Reminder: lunch price is currently $15.50. Having the correct change helps at check in. (a choice of four entrees and beverage)

50/50

Susie Flick shared $60 with the Rotary Foundation

Program

Thanks to Peter Einset for subbing today with a talk about what it was like to attend a movie in the days of silent films. We chimed in with some of our memories of Geneva’s three movie theaters (the Shines, the Temple, and the Regent) how much it cost to attend, and our favorite treats from the concession counter.

Stephanie ended today’s meeting with some poignant words about the recent tragedy in Buffalo and urged us to think about what we can do in our own club to move forward with our recently adopted policy on diversity.

Respectfully submitted,
Carol Chester
