Dec. 21, 2022

Next week: TBA

Joanne Bleakley, guest of Paul Bleakley
Jerry Flood, guest of Bill Flood
Kathy Fuchs, guest of Mary Gearan
Rosalie Gabriele, guest of Dr. Ken Steadman

Announcements

- Charlie Bauder announced that due to the weather forecast of sub-zero temperatures and strong winds, the club's scheduled participation in the Salvation Army bell ringing on Saturday is cancelled for the first time ever! This cancellation will undoubtedly affect the Salvation Army's budget. Since many Rotarians normally make a contribution to the Salvation Army on the day we "ring the bell", and want to contribute, please give Charlie a call or email, and he will be glad to stop by and pick-up your donation.
- Ray Ciancaglini informed us that Neil Sjoblom received recognition as photographer for over 20+ years for the Northeast Health College (formerly the Chiropractic College) (Congratulations, Neil!)

Happy Dollars

- President Jerry started off with wishing everyone Happy Holidays.

- Richard Kasulke is happy that he and Sally are finally back in their home in Geneva. They are still unpacking and was happy to say they haven't "killed each other" yet!
- Ted Baker is not only a Geneva Rotarian, but also a Rushville Lion! He has had some productive meetings regarding his future employment and will be able to make an announcement soon!
- As was mentioned at last week's meeting, Dave Cook has finally graduated from a two year college, 50 years later than anticipated and much later than when he earned his bachelor's degree. When receiving his degree he asked the College president "how did it feel having someone older than you"!
- Stephanie Hesler wished everyone a Happy 1st day of Winter!
- John Watson had a happy dollar for the "voice of Ted Baker"!
- Mike Rusinko is happy that he and Carol celebrated their 24th wedding anniversary! (Happy Anniversary Carol and Mike!)
- Ray Ciancaglini wished everyone a Merry Christmas.
- Ruth Leo was happy to be back after her "little mishap". She will have surgery in January for a torn meniscus and will be seeing a PT and chiropractor in the interim. She also gave thanks to Carol Chester and Kerry Lippincott for taking the Wrap-up notes in her absence.

50/50

President Jerry shared $80/$40 with the Foundation.

Program

After a two-year "hiatus" we were happily entertained by a musical program presented by the St. Peter's Senior Choir, led by Wendy Trowbridge and accompanied by Molly Hamilton. This was a great way to get into the Holiday Spirit!

Respectfully submitted
Ruth Leo
