Announcements

- The yard sale is on Saturday. The sign-up sheet was circulated. Cashiers are needed. Saturday morning is the latest items can be dropped off.
- The library is hosting a free concert by musicians from the Geneva Music Festival tonight at 6 pm.
- A special auction was held for the grants program. Johnnie O donated an Irish themed, metal coat rack. Mary Gearan had the winning bid.

Happy/Sad Dollars

- President Jerry had happy and sad dollars because his girlfriend's mother is having heart surgery today.
- Governor Hochul and the State of New York are so worried about him using his gas stove but Dave Cook couldn't see his stove this morning.
- Ruthie Leo had happy/sad dollars. She was sad for the awful air quality and for losing her Paul Harris medallion. She has asked Jim Dickson to get her a replacement, but according to "Murphy's Law", she will probably find it as soon as the new one comes in! She had happy dollars for enjoying reunion weekend at HWS last week-end and for her nieces once again making high honor roll.
- Mary Gearan will be in Boston for awhile. She is grateful to be in the Club and will be happy to see everyone when she gets back.
- Bill McGowan shared the news that a species that precedes homo sapiens has been discovered. Archaeologists discovered where they buried their dead and their brains are about ¼ the size of ours.

50/50

Bruce Tuxill shared money with the Rotary Foundation.
