Announcements

- Our golf tournament is September 29 at Big Oak. Everyone should have received an email with a flyer and sponsorship information. For more information contact Jason Haag.
- The District's golf tournament is September 8 at the Lima Country Club.
- Camp Onseyawa's dinner is November 10 at Club 86.
- There are still items remaining from the garage sale at the Sons of Italy. The items are a couch, armoire, end table, office chair, and seed spreader. If no one wants their items back President Diana will give them away for free.
- The Little Free Pantry is open at the library. It's stocked with food and toiletries. Susie is seeking donations of men's and women's socks, toothpaste, mouthwash, toothbrushes and dental floss, shampoo and conditioner, soap/bodywash, Hair Ties, combs, brushes, razors/shaving cream, feminine products, non-perishable food items (peanut butter, mac&cheese, pasta and sauce, fruit cups, soup, applesauce) and water. Donations can be dropped off at the Library.
- The Library will also be hosting a Free Farm Stand. If anyone has extra fruits and veggies from their gardens, please drop them off at the library.

- On August 24 Catholic Charities of the Finger Lakes is hosting a party at Geneva on the Lake to celebrate the Community Lunch Program's 40th birthday. The event is free and open to the public. Register online at <https://tinyurl.com/CLP40th> to RSVP.
- Mary Gearan is still looking for host families for a Brazilian student with an internship at the Experiment Station. He will be here from August through October. Dave Cook also asked that if anyone is going on day trips it would be nice to take the student with them.
- For those interested in music and other events around the Finger Lakes check out - <https://www.everythingflx.com/> and <https://flxmusic247.com/>
- Dr. Steadman donated money to the Club's Foundation today.

Happy/Sad Dollars

- President Diane is just happy to be here, and she fined Dave Cook.
- Dave Cook paid his fine and fined Jim Dickson. Jim Dickson called Brian Mook Jason and now Dave is doing it as well. He also gave money for anyone with the pronoun she. He is in awe of how Petunia has taken care of her puppies.
- Jim Dickson paid his fine. He is also sorry to miss the Strategic Planning session on Saturday as he will be a greeter at the Waterloo Rotary Club's Farmers Market
- Mike Rusinko enjoyed several concerts over the past week – one in Dresden as part of Yates County's Bicentennial, Tedeschi Trucks at CMAC, and Jimmy Richmond with his band at Rose Hill. He also thanked the Club for the great response to the need for help at Sonnenberg. Two students have been hired and there are several new volunteers.
- For the first time in five years Rich Kasulke's family (Rich, his wife, three sons, two daughters-in-law, and grandchildren) will be together at their camp.

50/50

Mary Lawthers shared money with the Rotary Foundation.

Program

Today's program about DARE program had to be rescheduled.

Taro Rago shared information about the ATHENA Leadership Award dinner. The steering committee is seeking nominations for ATHENA (women over 40) and Young Athena (women 40 and younger). Nominees must meet the following criteria –

- Demonstrates excellence, creativity and initiative in their profession
- Provides valuable service to improve the quality of life for others in their community
- Actively assists women in achieving their full leadership potential

To propose a nominee, fill out the onlineform. The ATHENA Steering Committee will review each proposal and upon approval a nomination form can be filled out and submitted. The deadline for proposals is August 4.

The ATHENA Leadership Award dinner will be November 8 at the New Hotel in Canandaigua. A portion of the proceeds from the dinner funds college scholarships for local women.

Respectfully submitted,

Kerry Lippincott
