Happy Dollars:

- Diana: Spanish lesson at casa Fuchs this past Monday.
- Ray Ciancaglini: Kudos to Frank Capozzi for a successful Sharing the Light Dinner Monday evening.
- Rich Kasulke: enjoyed the bowling event last week and was surprised with a birthday cake and celebration! He enjoyed the dinner/fund raising event for Rendell last week, the Sharing the Light Dinner, and his grandson's first day as goalie in spring hockey: 116 saves!

- Dave Cook: for his helpers at the dinner for Rendell (Palma, Tamara, Rich, and Jim DeVaney), bowling (but his shot wore off too soon), Sharing the Light Dinner, except for the temperature in the venue
- Jason Haag: sad dollar in memory of Ray Howard, music teacher, and scout master
- Stephanie Hesler: Her Mom turned 80 the same day as Rich Kasulke turned 75, son Nathan enjoyed a whirlwind trip with a good friend (St. Louis to Arizona) and will arrive tonight at Rochester airport.
- Carol Chester: enjoyed the Sharing the Light dinner as well but cautioned Dave that not all Catholics enjoy hot temperatures. In fact, the event's Emcee is Episcopalian and soaked through his suit coat too.

50/50

Guest Linda Beckley shared 51 dollars with the Foundation. However, Phil Beckley regretted giving up his tickets to Linda before the drawing!

Baked Goods Auction: Mary Gearan donated a full pan of blonde brownies which were "won" by Bob McFadden. That brought the total raised for Rendell to $2203.

Program:

President-elect Jason Haag reminded us of the changeover dinner next week. He then passed the mic to allow everyone to share a memory of Diana's year of presidency. Everyone had an opportunity to thank Diana for her successful year as our President. If you missed this, you may always send Diana a personal remark.

Respectfully submitted,
Carol Chester
