Announcements

- The Service Above Self committee met Tuesday night. The Ralph Springstead honorees are Rev. Jim and Sue Adams. The Community Organization of Year is the Second Impact Foundation. There is $1,950 in sponsorship and lots of auction items are coming in. Club members can purchase tickets to the event and donate a raffle basket or items for a basket. The event is on April 5 at Ventosa.
- The golf tournament will be on Friday, June 13 at Big Oak. Registration is at 10 am with a 11 am tee time.
- This month's social will be a sip and paint on Thursday, February 13 at Dana's. $20 includes dinner (pizza and wings) and art supplies (the sipping is on you). Please let Diana Perry know if you plan on coming.
- Palma Fratto-Evans passed the hat for Roman. He has been unable to find work so he will be moving to Cleveland, Ohio.
- Interact will be holding a Valentine's Bake Sale on February 14 after school at the High School. Help is needed with the sale. Please let Tamara Carter know if you are available. The March evening meeting will be a bake sale.

- The Boys and Girls Club needs help with cooking breakfast for their Saturday program. Stephanie Hesler is hoping the Club will help on the third Saturdays of the month. A sign-up sheet was circulated.
- Registration is open for the YMCA's Polar Plunge on March 29. For more information go to <https://www.genevafamilyymca.org/>.
- The Seneca Falls Rotary Club's Chocolate and Wine Extravaganza is Saturday, March 20 from 4 – 7 pm at the Lux Hotel in Waterloo/Seneca Falls.
- The Paul Harris committee is meeting after lunch.

Happy/Sad Dollars:

- Frank Capozzi – Happy to be back and to see everyone. The Community Lunch Kitchen upgrade is 98.5% done. The stove just has to be installed. Catholic Charities have been collecting monetary donations for the victims of the fire in Ovid. A little over $92,000 has been collected so far. St. Frances and St Stephens' School's Pot of Gold event is on Saturday, March 8 at the Sons of Italy.
- Rich Kasulke – Thank you to the nurses. Doctors wouldn't be anything without nurses. He gave Dave Cook best wishes for his back surgery.
- Dave Cook – Loves reading the weekly wrap-up. Ray Ciancaglini is humbled and excited to receive the Community Organization of the Year Award.
- President Jason – Is a new member of the vestry at St. Peter's. He is selling tickets for a large pizza from Ciccino's. Next week is his son's last cub scout meeting and he will be moving up to Boy Scouts.
- Mary Sue Dehn – Was happy to visit Seneca Falls Club. She will be visiting her son in Atlanta over the weekend.

50/50

Charlie Bauder shared $71 with the Foundation.

Heart of Rotary

Diana Perry had the lucky number...but did not draw the winning card. The jackpot continues to grow.

Program

The Finger Lakes Nurse Honor Guard gave a brief presentation and conducted a Florence Nightingale tribute.

- Any active or retired licensed practical nurse, registered nurse or nurse practitioner are eligible to be honored by the honor guard
- Honor ceremonies can be held at a funeral home, place of worship, gravesite or memorial services
- At the family's request the Honor Guard can serve as pallbearers

- All services are free of charge
- Nurses dress in traditional white uniform with cape, cap and white shoes
- For more information, visit their Facebook page - <https://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=61550616484037>

President Jason asked Rev. Rich Towers, the Interim Priest at St. Peter's to give a benediction.

Respectfully submitted,
Kerry Lippincott
