Next week:
Susie Flick, Geneva
Library

Newly minted President Kerry Lippincott led us in the pledge, invocation and reading of the Four-Way test.

Visiting Rotarian: Norm Lee, Bradenton, FL

Guests: Scott Cook, Peter Einset

Announcements:

- On 8/13 the city of Geneva City Manager, Amie Hendrix, will join us, and if there is anything you would like her to talk about please let Kerry know.
- Tuesday 7/8, the documentary "I'm Still Here" about COVID and disinformation, will be presented at the Smith at 7:00pm, followed by Q&A.
- Wednesday 7/9 There will be a MLK free concert at the gazebo by the lakefront, 6:00-8:00 p.m.
- FL Health is doing a "108 Holes for Health" virtual golf challenge to benefit FLHealth. $10 to enter, complete 108 holes of golf by Sept. 15 deadline and be entered in a drawing to win $500 Wegmans gift card. Details and sign up at flhealth.org/make-a-donation. Mini golf counts! Seneca Lake Resort Putt n Play is official host course for mini-golf.

Happy Dollars:

- Ruthie Leo is happy and proud that her great niece graduated as Salutatorian from Romulus Central School and will be going to HWS in the fall. Lots of happy tears were shed!
- Norm Lee is happy that his son from Reno is coming for a visit
- Dave Cook is happy his nephew is visiting.
- Jim DeVaney is happy that last of the grandkids graduated from high school and on the way to college.
- Ted Baker is happy that he is doing the morning show again (Mary Sue Dehn was guest)
- Ray Ciancaglini is happy about the success of Frank Capozzi's Catholic Charities fundraiser and kudos to Rich Kasulke and Mike Rusinko as emcees.
- Johnny Oughterson was happy that he received a very cool hat with an American flag and his name embroidered it. The name of the company was "Johnny O"!

50/50

Mary Sue Dehn won $27.

Program

- Kerry Lippincott played a clip from the 1972 musical 1776 “But Mr. Adams” to set the stage for the Declaration of Independence presentation.
- Mike Rusinko and Dick Austin shared that Fred Toole started this at our club and the tradition continues. Much was shared by Paul Kirsch in 2021 about the Civil and Revolutionary War and was updated in 2023.
- There were 56 founders in Philly on 7/4/1776. Thomas Jefferson wrote the first draft. That is when we became a new nation. So, Happy 252nd Birthday United States of America.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Sue Dean and Linda Sutherland (with a little help from Ruthie)

Four way test:

“Of the things we think, say or do:”

1. Is it The Truth?

2. Is it Fair to All Concerned?

3. Will it Build Goodwill and Better Friendships?

4. Will it be beneficial for All Concerned?
