- Diana Perry shared that Jen Harris won the Athena Award and will be involved in having a youth exchange student.
- Jerry Forcier had some sad dollars because a tree fell on his barn and his furnace died.
- Mike Rusinko had an opportunity to meet a FL Times columnist while walking along the lake, and she wrote a wonderful article.
- Santa Abraham will miss next week as she and Matt will be celebrating 25 years of marriage. (Congratulations!)
- Carol Chester recently had a lucky streak. She won the heart of Rotary, a raffle drawing, went to W Palm Beach for vacation but didn't win the Jack Pot Bingo.

- Tamara Carter has been very busy at work and has missed a few meetings but she was happy that Dallas Cowboys won on Monday.

50/50

Dave Cook shared $22 with Rotary International.

Heart of Rotary

Diana held the winning ticket but did not find the Queen. The pot grows!

Program

Mike Rusinko and Carol Chester shared how they got started making hard cider. Seven years ago Carol went to Cider Creek in Rochester and really enjoyed the experience so they decided to start making their own. Mike shared a bit of history about Johnny Appleseed. They shared briefly the process for primary fermentation (1 week), secondary fermentation (over winter) and they bottle in the spring. They add a bit of yeast and sugar to make the bubbles. They find apples from a particular tree and add other crab apples from friends' trees. We enjoyed a delicious sampling of the "fruits of their labor"!

Respectfully submitted,
Linda Sutherland
