Happy/Sad Dollars

- Dave Cook (aka Santa) thanked everyone who helped at the Santa Express event, especially Diana for organizing everything! Everyone had a great time and enjoyed the movie. (Well, most everyone) – after giving blood at the blood drive next door, Santa fell asleep in the movie, but woke up in time to see it to the end! While he was donating blood he met Ruthie's niece who was also donating! "Santa" gave out what was left of the candy from the event, and "Santa Express" ornaments.
- Johnny O. pointed out that Ethan Fogg, Nancy Bauder and himself were featured in the FLCC alumni magazine.
- Ethan Fogg was happy to spend the week-end with his sister. He also enjoyed a holiday party in Seneca Falls.
- Bob McFadden was happy that the Credit Union broke ground for a new office in Webster. It also would have been the 100th anniversary of his dad's birthday, Eugene McFadden, who founded the Credit Union. (Ed. Note: I didn't get the year!)
- Carol Chester had a good time at the Santa Train event.
- A shout-out to Diana's son, Owen, who ran the video and kept his cool with the "glitches"!

50/50

Program

President Kerry tested our knowledge of Christmas Music Trivia. Most songs were familiar, but there were a few that had us stumped. The winners were rewarded with Ghiardelli chocolates!
