Community Service:

- Toddler Time at the Boys and Girls Club: January 17th (this Saturday) please sign up for set up, cooking, or clean-up. (starts at 8:30)
- MLK March and Memorial service, Monday, January 19th: 9:30 AM: gather at Bicentennial Park, 10 AM Memorial March to St John's Chapel, HWS, 11 AM Service at St John's Chapel; music by Memorial Choir, 2026 MLK Art and Poetry Contest winners announced. Could use a few Rotarians to help after service.

Happy Dollars:

- Dave Cook – still trying to get his $100 check to Salvation Army! Can't seem to ever find their offices open!

- Garey Adamson – Inspired by Santa’s AI presentation last week composed a book about himself using AI. He plans to compose similar books for family members. See Garey to get more info.
- Jerry Forcier just happy to be here!
- Phil Beckley missed last week’s meeting but wanted to share his memorable bell ringing experience at Pedulla’s liquor store. A good samaritan passerby took pity on him and gave him a small bottle of “Fireball” whiskey to put in his coffee!
- Lisa Ventura is happy to be back and plans to move back to Geneva and Geneva Rotary soon!
- Charlie Bauder celebrated his 62nd anniversary with Nancy. Congratulations!

50/50

Stephanie Hesler shared $64/$37 with the Foundation

Heart of Rotary

Susie Flick had the lucky ticket number but did not choose the Queen of Hearts so the jackpot climbs!

Program:

Our own Kerry Lippincott gave a presentation on Historic Geneva. She shared pictures of old Geneva, paintings and other items that are in the museum’s collection. Kerry’s programs are always interesting and enjoyed by the members.

Respectfully submitted,
Ruth Leo
