- We are pleased to announce that the Community Organization of the Year is the Geneva Public Library!
- Project 2030 is collecting Diapers and Baby Items. The Drive is collecting larger size diapers, wipes and formula all month. Drop off Locations: Centennial Center @ HWS, Toddler Time, Boys & Girls Club, Rochester Regional Geneva Medical Campus (833 Canandaigua Rd.), Ontario County Public Health Office (3019 County Complex Dr., Canandaigua)
- Friends of Geneva General Hospital will present FLX COMEDY CARES on March 6th at Twisted Rail in Geneva. This is a fundraiser to support the purchase of patient monitoring equipment for the ICU at GGH. Contact MarySue Dehn for tickets. Pre-sale tickets are $15; $20 at the door.

Happy Dollars

- Santa Abraham brought Nutella and crackers for anyone who has never tried it!! Using a spoon is optional!
- As a follow-up to Santa's presentation on Sicily last week, the question was brought up as to what happens to the clothes that were on the bodies in the Mausoleums. Answer: they just disintegrated! (Ed. Note: Hmmm...sorry I missed that meeting – sounds interesting!)

- Garey Adamson came across some items at an Estate sale related to the Secor family. He wondered if anyone knew the family and would like to find them.
- Kathy Fuchs had happy dollars for Garey for saving all three of her dogs who were running outside. She also was happy for Diana helping her sort through the MLK materials and awards. All have been returned to the participants.
- Barb Geary is going to NYC next week to see her daughter
- Dave Cook – Interact having a bake sale this Friday at the High School. Official time is 2:45; “black market” is at 3:00. Come on by!
- Diana Perry was happy for the “heat wave!
- Linda Sutherland’s son who recently moved here from Hawaii and her daughter who lives in CT recently visited. Linda will be going to Houston the end of this month. (sorry, Linda, I didn’t get all of it!)
- Dave Cook was happy to find out that his friend from Syracuse, “Bill Rickey” is the first cousin of Dave Rickey. Small world!!

50/50: Jim DeVaney shared $80/$40 with Rotary

Heart of Rotary: Jim again! He drew the 7 of Hearts – so the pot grows! Now up to $234.

Program

President Kerry Lippincott entertained us with a rousing game of Valentine bingo! There was chocolate!!!

Respectfully submitted,
Ruth Leo
